APRIL 2016

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. (Collect for Monday in Holy Week)

“Alleluia. Christ is risen. The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.” With these words, we began our Easter celebration and we announced and affirmed the central conviction of our faith; that God raised Jesus from the dead. The tomb was empty, and not because Jesus’ body had been taken from it, but because God said “yes” to Jesus and “no” to the powers that killed him. Jesus lives, and because he lives, he is as much a part of our lives as he was in the lives of his first disciples. Jesus’ presence has been affirmed throughout the centuries through the experience of Christians since that first century.

In the book “The Last Week” by Marcus J. Borg and John Dominic Crossan, we are reminded by the authors that Good Friday and Easter, death and resurrection together, are a central image in the New Testament for the path to a transformed self. They remind us that as Christians we follow a path that involves dying to an old way of being and .....continued.... and being reborn into a new way of being. Good Friday and Easter are about this path, the path of dying and rising, of being born again.

St. Paul says it this way, "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me." (Gal. 2:19-20) We experience this ritually in baptism as we are symbolically buried with Christ in the waters of baptism and raised to new life as a new self, a new creation. In that rebirth, we are to embrace Jesus' passion for the kingdom of God and to take up our cross and follow him into the way of life and peace.

Jesus' passion for the kingdom of God, his passion toward the poor and needy, the sick and the outcast, his passion for justice - this is the passion that brought him life and vindication on that Easter morning.

This is the good news of Jesus. This is what we celebrate and this is what we are called to live in our own faith journeys. For with God's help, all things are possible. Alleluia.

Fr. Stuart

IS ANYONE OUT THERE 350 YEARS OLD? Of course we are all not that fortunate but we are looking for some history of our church over the last 350 years. We would welcome any photos, stories or memories of our church to help celebrate its long history in our community and in our lives.

Please send them to the church office, open 9am to noon, Monday through Thursday or email at ccparish@verizon.net

Christ Church Parish Celebrates 350 Years of Worship - 1666 to 2016

On Sunday, April 24, Christ Church Parish will “kick off” the beginning of a long term effort to collect artifacts, documents and photographs of our rich history to archive and display on a rotating basis for the church and public. The church is most privileged to have Presiding Bishop Michael Curry deliver the sermon at a celebratory service with Confirmation and Holy Communion. Interim Rector Stuart Wood will participate at the service.

The public is invited to this service which will be telecommunicated to the Parish Hall for overflow attendees. A reception will follow the service in the Parish Hall and we invite all to join us at this very special start to celebrating our 350 year history.

Annual Cleanup Day

To all who answered the call, I thank you for making our church cleanup day an overwhelming success. A special thanks goes to our Scout Troop 341. They're a great bunch of kids! We are standing tall, thanks to y'all!
Bob Guillotte, Junior Warden

A Giant Thank You Note to everyone who helped make my surprise birthday party such a wonderful treat for me. I appreciated the cards, the cake, the well wishes and hugs, and great surprise so much. It was also wonderful to have the support and caring thoughts during the services for my nephew, Lydell. Thank you to all of you....Love, Ellen

A very big thank you to Victoria and Matt Rosendahl for their generous gift of a piano to Christ Church Parish. We wish them every happiness in their new home.

1st Wednesdays - Connecting Threads ~~~~~

The inaugural gathering of knitters, cross-stitchers, etc. met on March 2nd with 5 members of CCP and 2 “friends” for a pleasant day of blending fibers and conversation. For now, this group will continue to meet on the 1st Wednesday of each month at 10:45am - mark your calendars and spread the word to your fellow knitters, crochet lovers, needlepoint and cross-stitch lovers to join in our community!

Next gathering: Wednesday, April 6th at 10:45am (after the 10:00am Wednesday Eucharist service)

Bring a sandwich !!

*Getting to Know You.... Please welcome our latest entry in our new column! Entries may be any length, from one paragraph to several. We look forward to learning about our fellow members. Getting to know Who Is Next?

Moments with Moose.....

Grandma D. used to say: My goal in life is to be as good a person as my dog already thinks I am. It's a very popular saying.

I like to make a good impression on everyone I meet.

I get noticed easily because I am so big. One day I was shopping in Lowes and we saw a tiny dog's head sticking out of a pocketbook. That is impossible for my Mom. Its hard to hide 130 pounds of fur.

Once someone sees me, I know it and I try to be a "good boy" and be on my best behavior. Its not that I worry too much about what other people think of me but I do care. Some dogs probably worry about it too much and try too hard to impress others (have you seen those haircuts on standard poodles.....really?) And maybe some dogs should try a little bit harder; we've all heard those growls under their breath that aren't exactly welcoming and have way too much teeth in them....ouch! I think I will try to wag more and sniff less.
